3. For each print entered, participants must complete a separate official entry form (as appended). On the entry form, participants must also certify that they are author of the original photographic print attached and that the print has not been published previously elsewhere, that all releases and authorisations were duly obtained, including model releases, which are the sole responsibility of the participants, and that nothing exists that may interfere with their entering said print in this competition or the granting of authorisations in relation thereto.
4. Participants may enter a maximum of one print per category. There must be no signature, stamp or other identifying mark on the photograph.
5. By entering the competition, the participant authorises Drukpa Publications Pvt. Ltd. to reproduce the prints for commercial and non-commercial purposes, present them at public exhibition(s), exhibit them on the related website(s), use them in any promotional material related to the competition or the event(s) celebration 800 years of legacy of the Drukpa Lineage, and/or publish them in The Dragon magazine or other publications. Participants agree to supply negatives and/or files when requested. No prints and entry forms will be returned.
6. The prints will be judged based on the following criteria by a panel comprising His Holiness the Twelfth Gyalwang Drukpa and other Rinpoches of the Drukpa Lineage:
 - (i) Originality of the picture idea
 - (ii) Photo content and treatment of subject matter
 - (iii) Composition and presentation
 - (iv) Appropriateness to the category/theme
 - (v) Ability to express a spiritual message

A PHOTOGRAPHY COMPETITION Rules and Regulations (cont'd)

7. The 10 best prints from each category will be selected by the panel of judges in the week of 13th August 2007, in Nangchen. The selected Grand Prize winner will be notified by email during the first week of September 2007. Selected participants will be given until 30th September 2007 to claim their prize (by email or fax). Any unclaimed prize will be re-awarded at the sole discretion of Drukpa Publications Pvt. Ltd.
